Best Western Great Britain reveals top five Father's Day getaways'

Give your dad a brilliantly different day he won't forget

No two Dads are the same. Some enjoy playing football, while others prefer watching it from the sofa. Some like fast cars, while others prefer a quiet fishing hole. There are so many different ways to spoil the special man in your life this Father's Day, so Best Western Great Britain has compiled a list to help. From climbing the biggest rope course in the country, to playing golf at a championship 18-hole course, there are weekend getaways to suit all types of dads. What's more, for stays booked before June 4th, Best Western are offering dads (and other family members!) free breakfast, as part of their campaign for summer 2017, Your Summer Your Way.

Kent: Take him for a spin with a track day at Brands Hatch

Fathers can fulfil their childhood dream and become a racing driver for a day at Brands Hatch. After an exhilarating day of racing, finish your day with a relaxing stay at The Best Western Manor Hotel. Set in a semi-rural part of Kent, the whole family can enjoy excellent food at the Manor Roast restaurant, before bedding down in comfort. Prices start from £70 based on a stay for two on 17th June 2017.

Merseyside: Aim high at the biggest rope course in the country

For daring Dads, the Ariel Extreme's High Rope Adventure in Knowsley is the perfect challenge. With over 60 hair-raising obstacles, it's the ultimate adventure course, where participants can glimpse lions and tigers in the safari park next door. After an exciting day of climbing, dads can take a well-deserved break at the Best Western Everglades Park Hotel in Widnes. Relax in comfort and use the hotel's state-of-the-art facilities, and spend the evening enjoying a delicious meal from The Keys Restaurant. Prices start from £79 based on a stay for two on 17th June 2017.

Buckinghamshire: Hit the mark with golf in beautiful Buckinghamshire

Spend 18-holes worth of quality family time with a stay at Best Western Plus Magnolia Park Hotel, Golf and Country Club in Buckinghamshire. Featuring a sweeping championship course of around 7,000 yards, it's one of the country's most challenging and picturesque courses in the country. Catering for beginners and professionals, the Best Western Magnolia Park Hotel will provide a day that the whole family can enjoy. End the day with a relaxing sauna experience or a delicious meal in the hotel restaurant. Prices start from £116.10 based on a stay for two on 17th June 2017.

County Durham: Listen to the ales' tales at a micro-brewery

What dad doesn't love beer? The team at Best Western Beamish Hall Hotel proudly brew beer on-site at their own microbrewery. The brewery produces eight premium quality ales, each with its own story to tell. Fathers will be in their element with on-site tours demonstrating how the delicious ales go from keg to mouth. The 13th Century Country House also serves quintessentially British afternoon teas at the Edwardian tearoom. Prices start from £155 based on a stay for two on 17th June 2017.

Doncaster: Cast a line with Dad at Alderwood Fishery

Spend Father's Day casting a line at the Alderwood Fishery. The new fishing venue located near Moss in Doncaster is stocked with a wide range of silver fish and carp. One day fishing is never enough, so your dad can stay the night at the nearby Best Western Premier Mount Pleasant Hotel. Offering a country house charm, the hotel boasts award winning gardens with tranquil courtyards and fountains, ideal for a scenic stroll. Prices start from £105.30 based on a stay for two on 17th June 2017.
